What a great way to start your weekend !

FRIDAY, JUNE 4TH MARK JONES – ILLUSTRATOR PAINTER

Born in Colorado, but grew up in the San Francisco Bay area, Mark loves the outdoors and is a frequent visitor to Lake Arrowhead where he finds inspiration in it's natural beauty. Mark attended the Art Center College of Design in Los Angeles where he honed his skills as an artist. He was influenced by Motoring artists, and found his expertise was also in painting anything with a motor.

His Skill of capturing speed and motion on paper is amazing. This First Friday event will feature several new "Wooden Boat" & "Woodie Car" paintings that Mark has recently completed.

ALSO PATTY McDONALD – PAINTER

Mostly self-taught, local Artist Patty McDonald is well known for her vivid Oil & Acrylic Paintings of Lake Arrowhead area scenes and Wooden Boats. Patty has been painting since 1994, where her focus has been both the Local Mountain area as well as California Coastal scenes, where she captures the playfulness of the California lifestyle. Many original paintings are in private collections, however number Giclee's are available of many of her works, and will be featured here at the First Friday event.

Patty's personality is as joyful as her art! Come meet her in person!
